

BURST

Meaning: BURST: To break open suddenly and violently, or to experience a sudden increase or release of something.

1. The balloon suddenly burst, scattering pieces of rubber across the floor.
2. She felt a burst of energy after her afternoon coffee.
3. The dam was about to burst from the pressure of the rising water levels.
4. With a loud pop, the firecracker burst in a shower of colorful sparks.
5. His laughter was so infectious that it caused a burst of joy in the entire room.
6. The athlete experienced a burst of speed in the final lap of the race.
7. As the sun set, the sky was painted in a burst of vibrant colors.
8. The unexpected news caused her heart to burst with excitement.
9. A burst of wind sent the papers flying off the table.
10. The artist's inspiration seemed to burst forth in a flurry of creativity.
11. The balloon burst with a loud pop, startling everyone in the room.
12. Her laughter seemed to burst forth, filling the air with joy.
13. After a long wait, the dam finally burst, releasing a torrent of water.
14. He felt a burst of energy after drinking his morning coffee.
15. The fireworks burst into a brilliant array of colors in the night sky.
16. Anger began to burst inside him when he heard the unfair accusations.
17. The sudden burst of applause made her moment feel truly special.
18. As the sun set, the sky burst into shades of orange and pink.
19. When the storm hit, the wind seemed to burst through the trees with fury.
20. The balloon suddenly burst, showering everyone with confetti.
21. She felt a rush of excitement as her heart seemed to burst with joy.
22. The dam was on the verge of bursting after days of heavy rainfall.

23. He couldn't hold back his laughter any longer and burst into fits of giggles.
24. The fireworks burst into a dazzling array of colors against the night sky.
25. A burst of energy propelled him forward as he sprinted to the finish line.
26. The bubble wrap popped with a satisfying burst under her fingers.
27. In a burst of inspiration, she completed the painting in just one afternoon.
28. The pipe burst, flooding the basement with water before anyone could react.
29. As the story reached its climax, emotions burst forth in a powerful crescendo.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/burst>