

BUSHEL

Meaning: A bushel is a unit of measurement for volume, commonly used to quantify agricultural produce, equivalent to approximately 35.24 liters or 8 dry gallons.

1. The farmer harvested a bushel of apples from his orchard.
2. After the festival, they sold a bushel of pumpkins to local families.
3. She bought a bushel of fresh corn at the farmer's market.
4. The old barn was filled with a bushel of freshly cut hay.
5. Each basket contained a bushel of ripe strawberries ready for picking.
6. He proudly displayed a bushel of oranges on his kitchen counter.
7. They spent the afternoon picking a bushel of wild blueberries.
8. A bushel of wheat was needed to make the bread for the festival.
9. The community garden yielded a bushel of tomatoes this season.
10. She carefully measured out a bushel of oats for the horses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bushel>