

BUSHELMAN

Meaning: Bushelman: a person who sells agricultural produce, particularly grains or vegetables, typically measured in bushels.

1. The bushelman carefully weighed the harvested corn before selling it at the market.
2. In the village, the bushelman was known for his fair prices and quality produce.
3. After a long day in the fields, the bushelman returned home with a truckload of fresh apples.
4. Everyone relied on the bushelman for their seasonal fruits and vegetables.
5. With a keen eye for quality, the bushelman selected only the best items for his customers.
6. The local festival featured a contest for the best bushelman, showcasing their finest crops.
7. Every Saturday, the bushelman set up a stall at the farmers' market, drawing in crowds.
8. Despite the competition, the bushelman's reputation for honesty kept his business thriving.
9. The bushelman's knowledge of agriculture made him a respected figure in the community.
10. As autumn approached, the bushelman prepared for his busiest season, harvesting and selling his yield.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bushelman>