

BUSINESSLIKE

Meaning: Businesslike: characterized by a professional, efficient, and practical manner, often emphasizing facts and clarity over emotions.

1. Her approach to negotiations was refreshingly businesslike, focusing on facts rather than emotions.
2. The presentation was clear and businesslike, showcasing the company's goals with precision.
3. In a businesslike manner, he addressed the team's concerns and offered viable solutions.
4. She wore a businesslike outfit that conveyed professionalism and confidence during the interview.
5. The contract was drafted in a businesslike style, ensuring all parties clearly understood their obligations.
6. His businesslike demeanor made him an effective leader, earning the respect of his colleagues.
7. They approached the project in a businesslike way, adhering to timelines and budgets meticulously.
8. The meeting was conducted in a businesslike atmosphere, allowing for efficient decision-making.
9. Her businesslike attitude helped streamline the workflow and improve productivity among the staff.
10. The report was concise and businesslike, providing all necessary information without unnecessary fluff.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/businesslike>