

BUSS

Meaning: Buss (verb): To kiss lightly, often used to express affection.

1. She leaned in to give him a quick buss on the cheek.
2. The couple shared a sweet buss under the twinkling lights.
3. After the performance, the actor received a buss from his adoring fans.
4. He greeted her with a gentle buss, full of warmth and affection.
5. The playful children rushed to buss their grandmother as she arrived.
6. At the end of the night, they exchanged a soft buss before parting ways.
7. With a light buss, she said goodbye, promising to see him soon.
8. The holiday card included a drawing of a heart and a buss between two characters.
9. His face turned red when she gave him a surprise buss on the lips.
10. A buss on the forehead can sometimes convey more love than words.
11. The children giggled as they saw their parents share a sweet buss.
12. After the ceremony, the couple sealed their vows with a tender buss.
13. He greeted his grandmother with a warm buss and a smile.
14. The actors shared a playful buss during their scene, much to the audience's delight.
15. In the middle of the crowded room, she caught his eye and gave him a shy buss.
16. A gentle buss on the forehead was all it took to comfort the child.
17. They ended the evening with a soft buss under the twinkling stars.
18. As a sign of affection, she placed a light buss on his hand.
19. The tradition called for a buss after the final dance of the night.
20. She leaned in to buss her cheek against his as a greeting.
21. The couple shared a quick buss before heading out the door.
22. At the wedding, they exchanged a sweet buss in front of their friends and family.
23. He felt a warm rush when she offered him a light buss on the lips.

24. The children giggled as they witnessed their parents' playful buss.
25. After a long day apart, a simple buss was all they needed to feel connected again.
26. In the midst of the celebration, they paused for a romantic buss under the twinkling lights.
27. The affectionate buss on the forehead was a gesture of reassurance.
28. They caught each other's eyes and shared a spontaneous buss, igniting the moment.
29. With a gentle buss, she showed her love without needing to say a word.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buss>