

BUST

Meaning: BUST (verb): to break free from confinement or to forcefully disrupt or dismantle an operation.

1. He decided to bust out his old guitar for the party.
2. The police were determined to bust the drug ring operating in the area.
3. After the kids broke the vase, they tried to bust out their best apologies.
4. She felt a rush of excitement as she prepared to bust through the finish line.
5. The comedian's latest routine was so funny that it made the audience bust with laughter.
6. They had to bust the myth that eating late at night leads to weight gain.
7. In a surprising twist, he managed to bust the age-old record during the competition.
8. The team needed to bust their losing streak to keep their playoff hopes alive.
9. She planned to bust into the conversation with her new ideas and suggestions.
10. The detective was thrilled to finally bust the case wide open after months of investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bust>