

BUSTER

Meaning: BUSTER: a term used to describe someone or something that is mischievous or troublesome, often used affectionately as a nickname.

1. The dog was a real buster, always stealing food from the table.
2. He earned the nickname "Buster" after his impressive performance in the school play.
3. My little brother is such a buster when it comes to sharing his toys.
4. The buster of the gang was known for his quick wit and charm.
5. She called him a buster after he failed to keep his promise again.
6. The movie's action sequences were filled with buster moments that had the audience cheering.
7. In the world of boxing, he was the buster who took on all challengers fearlessly.
8. The buster on the corner sold the best hot dogs in the city.
9. He felt like a buster when he showed up late to the important meeting.
10. Her laugh was infectious, and she was the ultimate buster of any tense situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buster>