

BUT-THORN

Meaning: But-thorn refers to a type of plant characterized by its sharp spines, which serve as a defense mechanism and can invade agricultural fields.

1. The but-thorn plant is known for its sharp, defensive spines.
2. Farmers often struggle with but-thorn invading their fields.
3. During the hike, we encountered a patch of but-thorn that we had to navigate carefully.
4. The unique biology of the but-thorn allows it to thrive in arid environments.
5. Many animals avoid grazing near but-thorn due to its prickly nature.
6. Local herbalists use parts of the but-thorn in traditional medicine.
7. I accidentally brushed against a but-thorn and quickly felt the sting of its thorns.
8. In the desert, the but-thorn plays a crucial role in the ecosystem.
9. Some people admire the beauty of the but-thorn despite its intimidating appearance.
10. The but-thorn's resilience makes it a fascinating subject for botanical studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/but-thorn>