BUTLER

Meaning: A butler is a domestic servant responsible for managing the household staff and attending to the needs of the household, particularly in serving meals and overseeing dining arrangements.

1. The butler quietly prepared the dining room for the evening's guests.
2. After years of service, the butler had become an integral part of the household.
3. He addressed the guests with the utmost respect, as any good butler would.
4. The butler managed the household staff with efficiency and grace.
5. In the mystery novel, the butler was revealed to be the true mastermind behind the crime.
6. She admired the butler's impeccable manners and attention to detail.
7. With a nod, the butler signaled that dinner was ready to be served.
8. The butler's knowledge of fine wines impressed even the most discerning palates.
9. As the party progressed, the butler moved seamlessly between the guests, ensuring everyone was attended to.
10. Many people believe that a skilled butler can elevate any gathering to an exceptional experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/butler