

BUTTERINE

Meaning: Butterine is a margarine-like product made from vegetable oils and fats, used as a substitute for butter.

1. The chef decided to use butterine instead of butter for the recipe.
2. Many people prefer butterine as a lower-cost alternative to real butter.
3. Butterine can be used in baking to achieve a similar texture to butter.
4. She spread butterine on her toast, enjoying its creamy consistency.
5. Some brands of butterine claim to have a flavor that closely resembles that of butter.
6. This recipe calls for butterine, which helps to keep the cookies moist.
7. Despite its popularity, some purists argue that butterine cannot compare to real butter.
8. The store stocked a variety of spreads, including both butter and butterine.
9. When making a vegan dish, one might substitute butterine for traditional dairy butter.
10. Butterine was once considered a luxury item before the rise of margarine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/butterine>