

BUTTERMILK

Meaning: Buttermilk is a tangy, fermented dairy product made from the liquid left after churning butter, commonly used in cooking and baking for its flavor and tenderizing properties.

1. Buttermilk is often used in pancakes to give them a rich, tangy flavor.
2. She decided to marinate the chicken in buttermilk before frying it for extra tenderness.
3. The recipe called for buttermilk, which adds a delightful acidity to baked goods.
4. For a healthier twist, you can substitute regular milk with buttermilk in smoothies.
5. Homemade ranch dressing tastes so much better when made with fresh buttermilk.
6. In southern cooking, buttermilk biscuits are a beloved classic at breakfast tables.
7. After making the butter, the leftover liquid is what we call buttermilk.
8. I love using buttermilk in salad dressings to create a creamy texture without too much fat.
9. Buttermilk pancakes are fluffy and perfect for a weekend brunch with friends.
10. She learned to bake from her grandmother, who swore by buttermilk for her famous cakes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buttermilk>