

BUTTOCK

Meaning: Buttock: one of the two rounded portions of the anatomy located at the back of the hip, commonly referred to as the posterior or rear end.

1. The athlete felt a sharp pain in his buttock after the intense workout.
2. She wore a dress that accentuated her curves, drawing attention to her buttock.
3. During the dance class, she landed awkwardly and bruised her right buttock.
4. He sat down too quickly and winced as he hit his buttock on the hard surface.
5. The doctor recommended stretches to alleviate the tension in her buttock muscles.
6. After the fall, he discovered a painful knot in his left buttock.
7. The sculptor worked meticulously to capture the human form, including the buttock's natural shape.
8. She felt self-conscious about her buttock size while trying on new jeans.
9. The physical therapist examined the buttock for signs of strain or injury.
10. In yoga class, they focused on poses that engage the buttock for better stability.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buttock>