

BUTTON

Meaning: A button is a small, typically round fastener used to secure clothing or initiate a function, such as starting a machine.

1. She pressed the button to start the machine.
2. He noticed that the button on his shirt had come loose.
3. The elevator door opened as soon as she pushed the button.
4. I lost the button from my favorite coat last winter.
5. Make sure to click the button to submit your application.
6. The designer added a unique button to enhance the jacket's style.
7. She hesitated before pressing the red button labeled "Emergency."
8. He sewed a new button onto his trousers after losing the old one.
9. The remote control has a button for every function you could need.
10. She adjusted the button on her blouse to make it fit better.
11. The shirt had a missing button that needed to be replaced.
12. He nervously fidgeted with the button on his coat.
13. The elevator doors opened as soon as she pressed the button.
14. A bright red button caught her attention on the control panel.
15. He showed me how to sew a button onto a pair of pants.
16. With a simple click of the button, the lights dimmed.
17. The child was excited to push the big green button at the fair.
18. She wore a jacket with a shiny gold button that sparkled in the sun.
19. He glanced at the button on his remote, unsure of what it would do.
20. He pressed the button to start the machine.
21. She sewed a new button onto her coat.
22. The elevator doors opened when I pushed the button.

23. He couldn't find the button to turn on the TV.
24. The shirt had a missing button that needed replacing.
25. Please click the button to submit your application.
26. She wore a jacket with a shiny gold button.
27. The remote control has a red button for emergencies.
28. He accidentally pushed the wrong button and deleted the file.
29. The child was fascinated by the colorful buttons on the toy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/button>