

BY-BIDDER

Meaning: By-bidder: a participant in an auction who places bids, often to compete with others for an item.

1. The auction concluded with a fierce competition among by-bidders.
2. As a by-bidder, she expertly navigated the bidding strategies.
3. The seller was pleased to see several by-bidders interested in the rare artifact.
4. By-bidders often have insider knowledge that can influence their offers.
5. He decided to enter the auction as a by-bidder, hoping for a bargain.
6. The by-bidder raised the stakes unexpectedly, catching everyone off guard.
7. She had a reputation as a savvy by-bidder in the art world.
8. The by-bidder's last-minute offer secured him the prized painting.
9. During the live auction, the by-bidder remained calm and calculated.
10. There was a noticeable tension in the room as by-bidders eyed each other warily.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/by-bidder>