

BY-DRINKING

Meaning: By-drinking refers to the act of consuming beverages, typically in a social setting, often accompanied by conversation and camaraderie.

1. By-drinking is often regarded as a social activity among friends.
2. She found joy in by-drinking while discussing her day with colleagues.
3. The festival encouraged by-drinking as a way to showcase local beverages.
4. By-drinking can strengthen bonds between people during gatherings.
5. He enjoyed by-drinking craft beers from various small breweries.
6. The tradition of by-drinking has been passed down through generations.
7. During the summer, by-drinking on the patio became a weekend ritual.
8. By-drinking at the art exhibit created a relaxed atmosphere for conversation.
9. They embraced by-drinking as a way to unwind after a long week.
10. By-drinking at the vineyard allowed them to taste the region's finest wines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/by-drinking>