

BY-INTEREST

Meaning: By-interest refers to a method of decision-making or collaboration where contributions and approvals are based on individual interests or expertise, ensuring inclusive participation.

1. The committee decided to approve the proposal by-interest, ensuring that all voices were heard.
2. In a by-interest arrangement, everyone contributes according to their expertise.
3. She participated in the project by-interest, drawn in by the innovative ideas being discussed.
4. The funding was allocated by-interest to support the most engaged teams.
5. By-interest collaborations often lead to unexpected synergies among participants.
6. He joined the initiative by-interest, motivated by a passion for environmental sustainability.
7. Their approach to problem-solving was by-interest, focusing on the strengths of each member.
8. The organization operates on a by-interest basis, fostering a sense of community among its members.
9. The workshop was structured by-interest, allowing participants to choose topics that resonated with them.
10. Her involvement in the charity was purely by-interest, stemming from her personal experiences.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/by-interest>