

BY-SPELL

Meaning: By-spell: a magical influence or charm that captivates or enchants a person or group, creating a sense of wonder or tranquility.

1. The magician's performance was so captivating that it seemed to cast a by-spell over the entire audience.
2. After the storm passed, the village felt as if it were under a by-spell of calm and tranquility.
3. The old bookshop had a by-spell about it that made visitors linger longer than they intended.
4. As he walked through the ancient forest, he felt a by-spell of enchantment wrapping around him.
5. Her laughter had a way of creating a by-spell that brightened even the darkest days.
6. Some believed the painting was created under a by-spell that granted the artist extraordinary skills.
7. The scent of blooming flowers hung in the air like a by-spell, enchanting everyone who passed by.
8. In the presence of true love, it feels as if a by-spell has been cast, making everything seem perfect.
9. The old castle was rumored to be haunted, with a by-spell that drew brave souls into its depths.
10. With each gentle breeze, it felt as if nature was weaving a by-spell that brought peace to the heart.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/by-spell>