

BY-WASH

Meaning: By-wash: a channel or area that directs excess water away from a main body of water to prevent flooding.

1. The river's by-wash allowed excess water to flow safely away from the village.
2. During heavy rains, the by-wash prevents flooding by directing water to a nearby pond.
3. The engineer designed a by-wash to manage stormwater runoff effectively.
4. Farmers often create a by-wash to protect crops from sudden deluges.
5. The by-wash system was essential for maintaining the integrity of the dam.
6. Her report on the by-wash highlighted its importance in flood management.
7. The wildlife thrives in the lush vegetation found along the by-wash.
8. After the storm, the by-wash was filled with debris that needed to be cleared.
9. Local authorities invested in improving the by-wash to enhance drainage capabilities.
10. The by-wash served as a natural habitat for various aquatic species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/by-wash>