

BYE

Meaning: 'Bye' is an informal expression used to indicate farewell or to part ways.

1. I'll see you later; for now, it's time to say bye.
2. As she waved goodbye, a tear rolled down her cheek.
3. He always leaves with a cheerful bye, brightening everyone's day.
4. "Bye for now," she said, stepping onto the train.
5. They shouted a loud bye as the bus pulled away from the curb.
6. After a long conversation, they exchanged their final bye and parted ways.
7. "Bye!" he called out as he hurried to catch his flight.
8. She slipped a note under the door that simply said, "Bye for now."
9. The kids ran off to play, shouting bye as they dashed into the yard.
10. Just before closing time, the shopkeeper said a warm bye to his last customer.
11. I waved goodbye as she boarded the train.
12. After a long day, I said my goodbyes and left the party.
13. He always adds a cheerful "bye" at the end of every conversation.
14. When the meeting concluded, everyone exchanged quick goodbyes.
15. As the sun set, I felt a bittersweet sense of goodbye to summer.
16. She wrote "bye" on a note and slipped it under my door.
17. We hugged tightly before saying our final goodbyes.
18. The child shouted "bye" to her friends as they left the playground.
19. With a smile, I replied, "See you later, bye!"
20. It's never easy to say goodbye to a friend moving away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bye>