

BYSTANDER

Meaning: A bystander is a person who is present at an event or incident but does not take part in it.

1. The bystander watched in shock as the accident unfolded before their eyes.
2. Several bystanders rushed to help the injured man lying on the street.
3. As a bystander, it can be difficult to know when to intervene in a dangerous situation.
4. The bystander recorded the entire event on their phone, capturing crucial evidence.
5. Feeling helpless, the bystander called 911 to report the emergency.
6. In the heat of the moment, the bystander froze, unsure of how to react.
7. A brave bystander stepped forward to confront the aggressor and defuse the situation.
8. The bystander later testified in court about what they witnessed that night.
9. Being a bystander often means grappling with feelings of guilt for not doing more.
10. The bystander's quick thinking helped save a child from a potentially dangerous situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bystander>