

CABLEGRAM

Meaning: A cablegram is a written message sent by telegraph, typically conveying urgent or important information.

1. The diplomat received a cablegram detailing the urgent situation in the region.
2. She was surprised to find a cablegram waiting for her at the hotel front desk.
3. The government issued a cablegram to all embassies regarding the new policy changes.
4. His excitement grew as he opened the cablegram that contained news from his family abroad.
5. The cablegram arrived late, causing a delay in the planned negotiations.
6. In the age of instant messaging, few people still send traditional cablegrams.
7. The historical archive is filled with old cablegrams that reveal insights into past events.
8. They decided to send a cablegram to confirm their attendance at the international conference.
9. The cablegram was a lifeline for those stranded in the remote area.
10. She carefully preserved the cablegram as a memento of her grandfather's travels.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cablegram>