

CABLING

Meaning: Cabling refers to the system of wires and connectors used to transmit data and connect electronic devices within a network.

1. The cabling in the new office was installed to enhance network connectivity.
2. He spent the afternoon troubleshooting the cabling that connected the servers.
3. Proper cabling is essential for a reliable and fast internet connection.
4. They had to reroute the cabling to accommodate the new layout of the building.
5. The technician recommended using high-quality cabling for the best performance.
6. She carefully organized the cabling behind the desk to avoid clutter.
7. Upgrading the cabling can significantly improve the overall system efficiency.
8. The team was tasked with labeling all the cabling for easier identification.
9. Cabling management systems help prevent tangling and damage over time.
10. During the renovation, they discovered outdated cabling that needed replacement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cabling>