

CACHINNATION

Meaning: Cachinnation refers to loud, hearty laughter.

1. The audience erupted in cachinnation at the comedian's unexpected punchline.
2. Her loud cachinnation filled the room, drawing curious glances from the other guests.
3. The children's cachinnation echoed through the park as they played on the swings.
4. He couldn't help but join in the cachinnation when she recounted the hilarious mishap.
5. Cachinnation erupted from the audience when the magician revealed the trick.
6. The group erupted into cachinnation at the ridiculous joke shared by their friend.
7. Despite the serious atmosphere, her cachinnation was contagious and lightened the mood.
8. Cachinnation is often the best remedy for a long, stressful day.
9. The film was so funny that it had the entire cinema in cachinnation.
10. Even the most stoic members of the audience broke into cachinnation at the witty dialogue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cachinnation>