

CAK

Meaning: Cack (noun): a loud, harsh laugh or cackling sound.

1. The comedian's jokes always seem to elicit a cack from the audience.
2. As the children played in the yard, their laughter turned into a delightful cack.
3. She couldn't help but cack at the sight of her friend slipping on the ice.
4. The unexpected twist in the movie made the entire theater cack with laughter.
5. His cack echoed through the halls, drawing attention from everyone nearby.
6. During the party, her cack was infectious, making even the shyest guests join in.
7. The bird's sharp cack broke the silence of the early morning.
8. With a cack that resonated in the room, she shared her amusing anecdote.
9. The sound of his cack was so genuine that it instantly lifted everyone's spirits.
10. They all shared a cack when they saw the funny meme on their phones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cack>