

CAACKLER

Meaning: CACKLER: a person or animal that makes a loud, harsh, or raucous sound, often associated with laughter or the vocalizations of certain birds, particularly hens.

1. The loud cackler in the group always drew attention during meetings.
2. At the farm, the cackler seemed to rule the roost with her loud calls.
3. Everyone knew her as the cackler who could make any story sound hilarious.
4. In the midst of the laughter, the cackler stood out with her infectious energy.
5. She was a notorious cackler, often interrupting serious conversations with her laughter.
6. The cackler's voice echoed across the barnyard, startling the other animals.
7. During the comedy show, the audience erupted in laughter at the cackler's witty remarks.
8. Her friends affectionately called her the cackler, appreciating her sense of humor.
9. The cackler had a unique ability to lighten the mood in even the most somber situations.
10. As the cackler shared her tales, the room filled with joy and amusement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cackler>