

CACOON

Meaning: CACOON: A protective casing or covering, often used to describe the silk structure spun by a caterpillar during its metamorphosis or a creative assemblage of materials.

1. The caterpillar spun itself into a delicate cocoon to begin its transformation.
2. After weeks of preparation, the artist unveiled her cocoon of colorful fabrics.
3. In the quiet of the forest, a cocoon hung from a branch, promising new life.
4. He felt a sense of security as he curled up in his cocoon of blankets.
5. The scientist observed the metamorphosis happening inside the cocoon.
6. She created a cocoon of sound with her music, enveloping everyone around her.
7. The cocoon's intricate patterns fascinated the children at the nature center.
8. As winter approached, the trees formed a cocoon of frost that sparkled in the sunlight.
9. The writer described her emotions as a cocoon that needed to be unraveled.
10. In her mind, she built a cocoon of dreams that shielded her from reality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cocoon>