

CADDISH

Meaning: CADDISH: exhibiting a lack of consideration or respect, often characterized by inappropriate or rude behavior.

1. His caddish behavior at the party left everyone feeling uncomfortable.
2. She found his caddish remarks about her outfit to be quite offensive.
3. Despite his charm, his caddish nature soon became apparent.
4. The protagonist's caddish actions ultimately led to his downfall.
5. He was known for his caddish treatment of women, which earned him many enemies.
6. Her friends warned her about his caddish tendencies, but she didn't listen.
7. The film depicted a caddish villain who manipulated others for his gain.
8. It was hard to ignore his caddish attitude, even when he tried to be charming.
9. Many considered his caddish comments to be a reflection of his insecurities.
10. She decided to end the relationship after realizing his caddish ways were not changing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/caddish>