

CALCIFEROUS

Meaning: Calciferous: containing or yielding calcium or calcium compounds.

1. Calciferous deposits can often be found near ancient marine environments.
2. The calciferous nature of the soil contributed to the lush vegetation in the region.
3. Scientists are studying calciferous organisms to understand past climate conditions.
4. In geology, calciferous rocks are vital indicators of historical biological activity.
5. The calciferous layers in the cave revealed fossilized remains of aquatic life.
6. Her research focused on the calciferous algae that thrive in alkaline waters.
7. The calciferous features of the landscape were shaped by millennia of sedimentation.
8. Many plants prefer calciferous soils for their high calcium content and fertility.
9. Calciferous sediments are often associated with rich biodiversity in marine ecosystems.
10. The presence of calciferous materials in the water suggested a high mineral content.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calciferous>