

CALCIFICATION

Meaning: Calcification is the process by which calcium salts are deposited in body tissues, often leading to potential health complications.

1. Calcification can occur in various tissues, leading to potential health complications.
2. The process of calcification often involves the deposition of calcium salts in soft tissues.
3. Doctors may monitor calcification in the arteries as a sign of cardiovascular disease.
4. In some patients, calcification of the joints can cause significant pain and mobility issues.
5. Research has shown that certain dietary factors can influence the rate of calcification in bones.
6. The presence of calcification on an X-ray can indicate a history of injury or inflammation.
7. Calcification in the lungs can be a result of chronic infections or exposure to toxins.
8. Understanding the mechanisms of calcification is crucial for developing targeted therapies.
9. Calcification of the heart valves can lead to serious complications, including heart failure.
10. In developmental biology, abnormal calcification can affect the growth and function of organs.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calcification>