

CALCIGENOUS

Meaning: Calcigenous refers to a substance or soil that is rich in calcium carbonate or calcium, conducive to supporting calcium-dependent organisms and plants.

1. The calcigenous nature of the soil made it ideal for growing a variety of calcium-loving plants.
2. Researchers study calcigenous formations to better understand ancient marine environments.
3. In areas where calcigenous materials are abundant, unique ecosystems often thrive.
4. The calcigenous deposits near the coastline are crucial for maintaining marine biodiversity.
5. Farmers in the region have adapted their practices to suit the calcigenous characteristics of their land.
6. Calcigenous organisms play a vital role in the carbon cycle and overall ocean health.
7. The presence of calcigenous sediments often indicates a history of significant biological activity.
8. Scientists are investigating how climate change affects calcigenous habitats and their inhabitants.
9. Calcigenous rocks can help geologists date the formation of certain geological layers.
10. Understanding the properties of calcigenous materials can enhance construction techniques in coastal areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calcigenous>