

CALCIMINE

Meaning: Calcimine is a water-based paint made from slaked lime, chalk, and water, used for coating walls and ceilings, often giving a matte finish.

1. The old schoolhouse's walls were coated in a layer of calcimine, giving it a vintage charm.
  2. After years of neglect, the calcimine paint in the living room needed a fresh coat.
  3. She preferred calcimine for its matte finish, which absorbed light beautifully.
  4. The restoration team carefully removed the calcimine before applying new paint.
  5. Calcimine was commonly used in the early 20th century for its durability and ease of application.
  6. He admired the way the calcimine had faded over time, creating a soft, muted effect.
  7. To achieve a more vibrant look, she decided to skip the calcimine and use modern latex paint instead.
  8. The historic building's preservation required them to maintain the original calcimine layers.
  9. Calcimine can often be applied directly over plaster, making it a practical choice for older homes.
  10. They opted for a light blue calcimine to brighten up the otherwise dark hallway.
  11. The old walls were coated in calcimine, giving them a soft, matte finish.
  12. Before painting, he decided to remove the calcimine to ensure better adhesion.
  13. Traditionally, calcimine was used as a cheap and easy wall covering in many homes.
  14. She remembered her grandmother mixing calcimine with water to create a refreshing shade for the living room.
  15. During restoration, the team discovered layers of calcimine hidden under years of paint.
  16. Calcimine can be more environmentally friendly than modern paints due to its mineral composition.
  17. To achieve a vintage look, the designer opted for calcimine instead of conventional paint.
  18. The calcimine on the ceiling was peeling, revealing the plaster underneath.
  19. Applying calcimine requires careful preparation to avoid bubbles and streaks.
  20. In her art project, she experimented with calcimine to create unique textures on canvas.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calimine>