

CALCULATION

Meaning: Calculation: the process of using mathematical methods to determine a numerical result or estimate, often involving the assessment of values or quantities.

1. The calculation of the project's budget took longer than expected.
2. She double-checked her calculation to ensure there were no errors.
3. In mathematics, a simple calculation can lead to complex results.
4. His careful calculation revealed that they were over budget.
5. The accountant performed the calculation with impressive speed.
6. A quick mental calculation helped her decide on the best option.
7. The calculation of the total distance was more complicated than anticipated.
8. Accurate calculation is essential for successful scientific research.
9. Their calculation showed a significant increase in profit margins.
10. After a thorough calculation, the team concluded that the proposal was viable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calculation>