

CALCULATOR

Meaning: A calculator is an electronic device or software used for performing mathematical calculations.

1. I used a calculator to help me with my math homework.
2. The scientific calculator has many advanced features for complex equations.
3. She forgot her calculator at home and struggled with the exam.
4. His smartphone has a built-in calculator that he uses frequently.
5. The teacher encouraged us to use a calculator for the difficult problems.
6. A graphing calculator is essential for higher-level mathematics courses.
7. During the meeting, he relied on a calculator to analyze the budget.
8. The calculator displayed the answer in an instant, impressing everyone.
9. She found an online calculator to estimate her mortgage payments.
10. He prefers using a physical calculator rather than an app on his tablet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calculator>