CALENTURE

Meaning: Calenture is a fever characterized by delirium and mental confusion, often caused by extreme heat, particularly experienced by sailors in tropical climates.

1. He was struck by calenture, delirious and feverish, lost in his own mind.
2. The sailor succumbed to calenture as the relentless sun beat down on the deck.
3. In moments of high calenture, reality blurred and imagination ran wild.
4. Her body burned with calenture, leaving her to toss and turn in restless sleep.
5. The legends spoke of a hero who overcame calenture to save his village.
6. Calenture swept through the crew, turning their thoughts to visions of distant shores.
7. As the calenture intensified, he could almost hear the ocean calling his name.
8. The doctor warned that a prolonged bout of calenture could lead to madness.
9. In the midst of the fever, he dreamed of cool waters, a remedy for his calenture.
10. Calenture can often be mistaken for a simple fever, but its effects are profound.
11. The sailors were struck down by calenture as they battled the relentless heat of the sun.
12. In his fevered state, he spoke of distant lands, a symptom of the calenture consuming him.
13. Calenture can cause vivid hallucinations, making the sufferer believe they are swimming in cool waters.
14. The captain ordered the crew to take shifts in the shade, fearing the onset of calenture.
15. Legends say that those afflicted with calenture often saw visions of paradise just out of reach.
16. The old mariner warned the newcomers about the dangers of the sea, particularly the threat of calenture.
17. She lay in her hammock, drenched in sweat, her mind swirling in the throes of calenture.
18. Calenture was a common affliction among sailors, exacerbated by the scarcity of fresh water.
19. The doctor confirmed that the young boy's delirium was indeed a result of calenture from the heat.
20. In literature, calenture often symbolizes the struggle against nature's unforgiving elements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calenture