CALIBRATION

Meaning: Calibration is the process of adjusting and standardizing the accuracy of scientific instruments or equipment to ensure reliable measurements.

1. Calibration is essential for ensuring the accuracy of scientific instruments.
2. Regular calibration of the equipment is required to maintain reliable measurements.
3. The technician spent hours on the calibration of the complex machinery.
4. After calibration, the device showed significantly improved performance.
5. Calibration procedures must adhere to strict industry standards to be effective.
6. He checked the calibration of the thermometer before taking the readings.
7. Inaccurate calibration can lead to significant errors in data analysis.
8. The laboratory implemented a new system for tracking calibration schedules.
9. Before launching the experiment, they confirmed the calibration of all sensors.
10. Calibration allows for consistent and precise results in research studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calibration