

CALIPH

Meaning: Caliph: A religious and political leader in Islam, regarded as a successor to the Prophet Muhammad, who governs a caliphate.

1. The caliph ruled over vast territories during the golden age of Islam.
2. Many scholars flourished under the patronage of the caliphate in Baghdad.
3. The title of caliph signifies a spiritual and political leader in the Muslim world.
4. Historically, the caliph was seen as the successor to the Prophet Muhammad.
5. The caliphate played a crucial role in the spread of Islamic culture and knowledge.
6. In medieval times, the caliph held immense power and influence across the region.
7. The caliph's court was known for its opulence and gatherings of intellectuals.
8. Disputes over succession often led to divisions within the caliphate.
9. The Ottoman Empire was the last significant state to claim the title of caliph.
10. Modern interpretations of the caliphate vary widely among different Muslim communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/caliph>