

CALLER

Meaning: Caller: a person who makes a telephone call.

1. The caller on the line sounded anxious and disoriented.
2. She recognized the voice of the caller immediately, despite the bad connection.
3. After a brief hesitation, the caller revealed their identity.
4. The customer service representative took notes as the caller explained the issue.
5. It was a surprise when the caller turned out to be an old friend.
6. The caller kept repeating the same information, making it difficult to assist.
7. He glanced at his phone, unsure if he should answer the unknown caller.
8. The dispatcher informed the police about the emergency call from a frantic caller.
9. As a professional telemarketer, he had to navigate various reactions from each caller.
10. The caller's request was unusual, but the operator handled it with patience.
11. The caller provided important information about the missing child.
12. She answered the phone, excited to hear from an old caller.
13. The caller's voice was shaky, indicating they were in distress.
14. He was surprised to find out the caller was his childhood friend.
15. The customer service representative took notes as the caller explained their issue.
16. After several rings, the caller finally decided to leave a voicemail.
17. The mysterious caller refused to reveal their identity during the conversation.
18. He always made sure to verify the caller's number before sharing sensitive information.
19. The caller remained calm, despite the urgency of the situation.
20. She recognized the caller's number and immediately felt a wave of nostalgia.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/caller>