

CALORIFICIENT

Meaning: Calorificent: relating to or having the ability to produce heat or energy, particularly in the context of fuel sources or materials.

1. The calorificent properties of the new fuel source were groundbreaking for renewable energy.
2. Scientists are researching the calorificent value of various biomass materials for sustainable energy production.
3. Understanding the calorificent potential of different food sources can help with nutritional planning.
4. The calorificent content of a substance is crucial for determining its effectiveness as an energy source.
5. In the culinary world, knowing the calorificent characteristics of ingredients can guide healthier cooking.
6. The calorificent calculations revealed that the proposed diet was not as energy-dense as expected.
7. Engineers are focused on improving the calorificent efficiency of the latest engine designs.
8. The calorificent efficiency of the old furnace was significantly lower than modern alternatives.
9. Studying the calorificent levels in various diets can shed light on their long-term health impacts.
10. The environmental impact of a calorificent fuel source is an important consideration in energy policy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calorificent>