

CALUMNIATOR

Meaning: Calumniator: a person who makes false and defamatory statements about someone, often to damage their reputation.

1. The calumniator spread vicious rumors that tarnished her reputation.
2. After realizing he was the target of a calumniator, he decided to confront the issue head-on.
3. The gossip column was filled with the lies of a skilled calumniator.
4. She was tired of being the victim of a calumniator who thrived on her misfortunes.
5. In a world where the calumniator often prevails, truth can become a rare commodity.
6. The calumniator's deceitful words left a lasting impact on the community.
7. He embraced the challenge of proving the calumniator wrong with solid evidence.
8. Surrounded by friends who stood by her, she refused to let the calumniator break her spirit.
9. The calumniator's tactics only fueled the fire of her determination to succeed.
10. Justice was served when the calumniator was finally exposed for their malicious lies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calumniator>