

CALUMNIATORY

Meaning: Calumniation refers to statements or remarks that are false and intended to damage someone's reputation.

1. His calumniation remarks about her character caused a rift in their friendship.
2. The journalist faced backlash for his calumniation articles that misrepresented the facts.
3. During the debate, she accused her opponent of using calumniation tactics to undermine her credibility.
4. The lawyer warned his client that calumniation statements could lead to a defamation lawsuit.
5. Despite the calumniation nature of the rumors, she chose to rise above the negativity.
6. The author defended her work against calumniation criticism from a rival writer.
7. Calumniation comments on social media can have serious repercussions for one's reputation.
8. He was disappointed to see how easily people believed the calumniation gossip.
9. In an effort to silence the calumniation whispers, he decided to address the issue publicly.
10. The calumniation tone of the report prompted an immediate investigation into the claims.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calumniation>