

CALVER

Meaning: Calver (verb): To give birth to calves; to assist in the birthing of calves in livestock.

1. The farmer decided to calver his herd in the spring to take advantage of the warmer weather.
2. After months of preparation, the calver finally arrived on the farm, ready to assist with the birthing process.
3. She had learned the art of calvering from her father, who had been a skilled farmer for decades.
4. Watching the calver work was fascinating; he moved with such confidence and care.
5. The calver explained the importance of monitoring the pregnant cows closely as their due dates approached.
6. Every year, the calver would host a workshop to teach new farmers the best practices for calving.
7. During the calving season, the barn was often filled with the sounds of newborn calves and their mothers.
8. A successful calver knows that patience is key when dealing with a difficult birth.
9. The local veterinary clinic offered special training sessions for aspiring calvers to improve their skills.
10. With the right tools and knowledge, any farmer can become an adept calver over time.
11. The calver was carefully selected for its strong lineage and health.
12. At the farm, the calver was known for her gentle temperament and high milk production.
13. He decided to invest in a calver to enhance his dairy herd.
14. The calver grazed peacefully in the lush green pasture.
15. She spent her mornings tending to the calver and ensuring it received proper care.
16. With the arrival of the new calver, the barn felt more alive than ever.
17. Farmers often prefer younger calvers for their ability to adapt quickly.
18. The calver's first feeding was a moment of joy for the entire family.
19. She documented the growth of the calver in her farming journal.

20. Watching the calver interact with the other animals is always a delightful experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calver>