

CALYPTRIFORM

Meaning: Calyptriform refers to a shape or structure resembling a cap or hood, often used to describe certain floral or botanical features.

1. The calyptriform structure of the flower adds to its unique aesthetic appeal.
2. Botanists often study the calyptriform characteristics of certain moss species.
3. In her lecture, she explained the significance of calyptriform leaves in plant adaptation.
4. The calyptriform shape of the shell helped it to withstand harsh ocean currents.
5. Researchers found that calyptriform fungi play a vital role in nutrient cycling.
6. The calyptriform design of the building was inspired by natural forms.
7. His artwork featured calyptriform motifs that drew attention to organic shapes.
8. The calyptriform arrangement of the petals attracted numerous pollinators.
9. She admired the calyptriform silhouette of the ancient tree against the sunset.
10. The study focused on the evolutionary advantages of calyptriform structures in various species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/calyptriform>