

CAMPANED

Meaning: CAMPANED (verb): to sound or ring a bell, especially in a church or similar setting.

1. The old church campaned loudly at noon, calling the townsfolk to prayer.
2. As the sun set, the distant bell campaned, marking the end of the day.
3. She paused to listen as the bells campaned in the cool evening air.
4. The sound of bells campaned through the valley, echoing off the hills.
5. Every hour, the clock tower campaned, reminding everyone of the time.
6. In the village square, the bells campaned joyfully during the festival.
7. The rhythmic sound of the bells campaned, creating a peaceful atmosphere.
8. He smiled as the bells campaned in celebration of the wedding.
9. The church's bells campaned, their melody resonating in the hearts of the listeners.
10. On clear days, the sound of the bells campaned could be heard miles away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/campaned>