

CANARD

Meaning: Canard: a false or unfounded rumor or story, especially one deliberately spread to mislead.

1. The article was criticized for spreading a canard about the politician's past.
2. Despite the claims, the story turned out to be nothing more than a canard.
3. Many people fell for the canard that the new policy would lead to job losses.
4. The rumor was a canard, carefully crafted to damage her reputation.
5. In the world of journalism, it is crucial to distinguish fact from canard.
6. His defense against the accusations relied heavily on proving the canard was false.
7. She dismissed the canard as mere gossip without any credible evidence.
8. The canard circulated rapidly on social media, causing widespread panic.
9. Experts warned that the canard could undermine public trust in scientific research.
10. Only time would reveal whether the initial claims were a canard or based on truth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/canard>