

CANCEL

Meaning: To cancel means to officially decide that something planned will not take place.

1. I had to cancel my flight due to unforeseen circumstances.
2. The event organizers decided to cancel the concert because of bad weather.
3. She called the restaurant to cancel her reservation for two.
4. After much consideration, they chose to cancel the project altogether.
5. The company had to cancel the employee training session last minute.
6. He decided to cancel his subscription when he realized he wasn't using it.
7. They sent an email to all participants to inform them that the meeting would be canceled.
8. The movie was canceled after the lead actor fell ill.
9. Please remember to cancel your appointment if you cannot attend.
10. The team was disappointed when they learned that the tournament had been canceled.
11. I had to cancel my dinner plans due to a sudden work commitment.
12. The airline informed us that they needed to cancel our flight because of bad weather.
13. She decided to cancel her subscription after realizing she no longer used the service.
14. If you need to cancel your appointment, please give us at least 24 hours' notice.
15. They had to cancel the outdoor concert when it started raining heavily.
16. The event was canceled last minute, leaving many guests disappointed.
17. He tried to cancel his online order but found that it was already being processed.
18. Due to unforeseen circumstances, we will have to cancel the meeting scheduled for tomorrow.
19. I regret to inform you that we must cancel the project for lack of funding.
20. After much deliberation, they chose to cancel the vacation rather than risk their health.
21. I need to cancel my subscription before the next billing cycle.
22. The meeting was canceled due to unforeseen circumstances.

23. She decided to cancel her flight because of the bad weather.
24. They had to cancel the event after receiving severe weather warnings.
25. Please let me know if you want to cancel your appointment.
26. The company announced it would cancel the project after much deliberation.
27. He was disappointed when he had to cancel his plans with friends.
28. You can easily cancel your order within the first hour of purchase.
29. The coach had to cancel practice because several players were injured.
30. After considering the risks, they chose to cancel the trip altogether.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cancel>