

CANCRIFORM

Meaning: Cancriform refers to a shape or structure resembling a crab or having a crab-like form, often used to describe specific patterns or formations in biological contexts.

1. The cancriform structure of the coral revealed its unique evolutionary adaptations.
2. Researchers studied the cancriform patterns in the sand to understand marine life better.
3. Her art piece featured cancriform shapes that evoked the ocean's depths.
4. The scientist described the cancriform feature as crucial for the organism's survival.
5. In the laboratory, they created a cancriform model to simulate environmental conditions.
6. The cancriform arrangement of shells along the shoreline fascinated the biologist.
7. Through cancriform analysis, the team discovered new insights into crustacean behavior.
8. The cancriform design of the building mimicked natural sea forms.
9. He was intrigued by the cancriform fossils found in the ancient seabed.
10. The documentary highlighted the cancriform characteristics of various marine species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cancriform>