CANCROID

Meaning: Cancroid is a type of skin infection characterized by ulcerative lesions, often resembling other dermatological conditions.

1. The doctor diagnosed her with a cancroid infection after examining the lesions.
2. Cancroid is often mistaken for other skin conditions due to its appearance.
3. Treatment for cancroid typically involves antibiotics to clear the infection.
4. He was relieved to hear that cancroid is not contagious and poses no risk to others.
5. The symptoms of cancroid can include painful sores and swelling in the affected area.
6. After extensive research, the team published a paper on the efficacy of treating cancroid.
7. Public health campaigns have raised awareness about cancroid and its prevention.
8. She attended a seminar on sexually transmitted infections, where cancroid was discussed.
9. The dermatologist explained that cancroid can be a sign of underlying health issues.
10. Early detection of cancroid is crucial for effective treatment and recovery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cancroid