

CANDICANT

Meaning: Candicant: a person who is a candidate or applicant for a position, award, or opportunity.

1. The candicant stood nervously before the panel, ready to present her ideas.
2. As a candicant for the scholarship, he prepared a compelling essay about his community service.
3. The candicant's confidence grew as she rehearsed her speech in front of a mirror.
4. Judges often look for creativity and originality in a candicant's project proposal.
5. Being a candicant in such a competitive field requires both determination and passion.
6. The candicant impressed the audience with her innovative solution to environmental issues.
7. After weeks of preparation, the candicant finally submitted her application on the deadline.
8. Each candicant was given equal time to showcase their talents during the audition.
9. The feedback provided to the candicant was constructive and aimed at helping her improve.
10. As a candicant, he understood the importance of making a strong first impression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/candicant>