

CANDIDATURE

Meaning: Candidature refers to the status or condition of being a candidate for a position or role, particularly in the context of elections or applications.

1. Her candidature for the leadership position was overwhelmingly supported by the committee.
2. The university announced the deadline for submission of candidature applications next month.
3. After careful consideration, they decided to withdraw his candidature for the scholarship.
4. She felt confident in her candidature after presenting her innovative ideas at the interview.
5. His strong track record made his candidature stand out among the other applicants.
6. The board will review all submitted candidature documents before making a final decision.
7. Despite the challenges, her candidature represents a significant step towards diversity in leadership.
8. In light of recent events, they questioned the viability of his candidature for the role.
9. The party officially endorsed her candidature during the annual conference.
10. Candidature in such a competitive field requires not only qualifications but also charisma.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/candidature>