

CANDIDNESS

Meaning: CANDIDNESS: the quality of being open, honest, and straightforward in expression or communication.

1. Her candidness during the meeting encouraged others to share their opinions openly.
2. The journalist praised the politician's candidness about the challenges facing their campaign.
3. His candidness about his past mistakes helped build trust with his new colleagues.
4. Candidness in relationships fosters deeper connections and understanding between partners.
5. She appreciated his candidness, even when his feedback was difficult to hear.
6. The artist's candidness in her interviews revealed the vulnerability behind her work.
7. Candidness can sometimes lead to uncomfortable truths, but it ultimately promotes honesty.
8. In her candidness, she inspired others to embrace their authentic selves.
9. His candidness surprised everyone, as they were used to more guarded conversations.
10. The documentary was notable for its candidness, shedding light on issues often overlooked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/candidness>